CLUB LIFECYCLE PREDICTOR

Where is your club in the evolutionary journey? Phase 1: Formation | Phase 2: Growth | Phase 3: Development | Phase 4: Performance | Phase 5: Model Club

The Youth Club Lifecycle is built on a framework consisting of ten key factors that form the foundation of a club's success. These factors exist across 5 Phases of Growth. Each factor operates on a continuum, with performance starting at a basic level during the club's inception and becoming more advanced and sophisticated as the club matures, maybe! While many factors can influence an organization's evolution, these ten key factors have consistently emerged as the most impactful in shaping a club's growth and success. Their significance across diverse contexts highlights their importance in an organization's evolutionary journey.

1. Leadership Structure: Establishing a clear leadership structure that balances ownership, board oversight, and professional management.
2. Community Connection: Fostering meaningful connections with members to build loyalty, trust, and long-term support.
3. Right People in the Right Leadership Seats: Ensuring leaders have the experience, qualifications, and decision-making authority to drive the club forward.
4. Staffing Structure: Building a staffing model that effectively integrates full-time, part-time, and volunteer contributions.
5. Strategic Planning: Developing and maintaining a strategic plan that informs decisions and aligns with long-term goals.
6. Administrative Structure: Balancing team and club-centric behaviors to create a unified, efficient administrative structure.
7. Facilities Access: Securing access, ownership, or control over critical facilities to meet training and competition needs.
8. Operational Planning: Creating and executing operational plans that translate strategic goals into measurable actions.
9. Revenue Portfolio: Diversifying revenue streams to ensure stability and reduce dependence on any single source.
10. Program Oversight: Establishing oversight to ensure the quality, consistency, and accountability of all programs.

USER GUIDE TO INSTITUTE FOR YOUTH SPORTS LEADERS BEST PRACTICE ANALYSIS REPORTS

Reports Comparing Club Performance with over 2500 Youth Clubs and Counting!

DATA SOURCE: Reports 1-8 include participant responses to 60 best practice statements, validated by 2,500+ youth sports clubs, since 2008. For a comprehensive analysis, Leaders can invite stakeholders to participate, creating a comprehensive club-wide assessment. Club's collecting 20+ responses gain valuable insights and awareness, helping Leaders to address performance gaps and employ strategies for long term success.

ESSENTIAL DEPARTMENTS AND KEY ROLES: Our research identifies 7 ESSENTIAL DEPARTMENTS, and 19 KEY ROLES commonly found in high-performing youth sports clubs. Understanding how these departments and roles are functioning helps leaders pinpoint where to allocate resources effectively and where targeted interventions may be needed to boost performance. The data analysis highlights areas of strength as well as opportunities for improvement across departments and roles. Note - Only 10 of the 19 the KEY ROLES are shown on these reports as these roles have accountability for one or more of the 60 Best Practices.

INDIVIDUAL, CLUB, AND STAKEHOLDER REPORTS:

- Individual Reports 1 & 2 compares a respondent's Best Practices answers with All Clubs and the Top 10% Highest Performing Clubs.
- Club Reports 3 & 4 aggregate responses from All Members from the same club.
- Stakeholder Reports 5 & 6 grouping respondents by their roles, offering valuable insights into how different groups perceive the club's performance.
- Gap Analysis Report 7 measures the difference between current performance and the Model Club, a standard of 100%. This difference, known as the opportunity gap, highlights areas for improvement.

PERFORMANCE RATINGS: Performance data is categorized into three levels: Low (0-50%) / Average (51-70%) / High (71-100%)

BEST PRACTICE STATEMENTS: The Best Practice Statements are abbreviated in the charts using the statement number (1-60). Full statements are available on the IYSL Website: www.youthsportsleaders.com/statements and on the final 2 pages of this report.

COMPARISON WITH OTHER CLUBS: IYSL has collected survey data from over 2500 clubs. A comparison is provided with 'All Clubs' and 'Top 10% of Club' in Reports 1-6. Black line represents the average of 'All Clubs' and Blue line the average of 'Top 10% of Clubs.'
